Hello

I hope this letter finds you and your associates well. I apologize for the tardiness of this e-mail; As you can imagine, we are kept fairly busy out here. We received the packages you sent us early last week and everyone in the section is pleased with the contents J (The copy of CSI is currently making the rounds amongst DVD players and laptops during the evenings...).

There was a little something for everyone. Be it a snack, toiletries or magazine, every Paratrooper that sifted through the packages walked away grinning. Once again, I thank you for the 'little things' that produce a large, positive impact on the Paratroopers here.

SFC Jeudy mentioned that you would like for us to take a group photo...No problem. Thanks to the wonders of digital technology, we will take few pictures and forward them to you via email in the next few days.

Thanks once again.

Respectfully,
Kareem J. Toomer
